The details of daily life in 1872 New Orleans are a vivid backdrop to Degas’ struggles and passions as he created the paintings that would bring him fame in the budding of the Impressionist movement in Paris. Dr. O’Neill’s presentation will introduce the research that led to a novel, screenplay, stage play, and musical.