

We Can Do It!

NORTH AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Student Symposium
(in the context of the seminar)

“Stronger Together?”

The Seriality of Feminism,
the Gender of Misogyny,
& the ‘Case’ of Hillary Clinton

Thursday_20 July 2017_4:00-8:30 pm_Room B

(The Seriality of) Feminism: Then & Now

JELLA NIEMANN_ “Feminism and the Domestic Sphere in 19th-Century American Socialism”

MARTHE-SIOBHÁN HECKE_ “Making a Difference:
The Interventions of Native American Feminism(s)”

FRANZISKA ERMERT_ “On the Paradox of Trans-Exclusionary Feminism”

NARUMON CHAROENJAI_ “Feminist Perspectives on Reproductive Technologies”

HANNAH RIECK_ “‘Will cry for votes’: Sexism in the 2008 and 2016 US Presidential Campaigns”

LARISSA SAAR_ “The Fallacy of Contemporary Feminist
Activism: The 2017 Women’s March on Washington,
Partisanship, and Reproductive Rights”

Projecting Female Figures in Popular Culture, Commodifying Feminism

CHANTALE HUTH_ “The Depiction of Femininity and Female Heroines in Disney Movies”

STEPHANIE RÖHRIG_ “Fitting In? Projecting Women in Kellogg’s
Advertisements”

LENA D. WALTHER_ “Can You Be Liberated by Body Lotion?
The Dangers and Chances of Commodified Feminism”